TEAMING UP TO TACKLE HUNGER

CATHIE COWARD, THE HAMILTON SPECTATOR

Kevin Glenn and Stevie Baggs help sort and pack food along with Brian Collins, centre, from Purolator. The Tiger-Cats, Hamilton Food Share and Purolator have teamed up for the past 9 years with their Tackle Hunger Initiative. Ticket holders for Monday's Labour Day Classic are encouraged to bring a non-perishable food item to the game to help the cause and in return have their photo taken with the Grey Cup.
