

FOOD TRAIN

Dec 1st 2010

JOHN RENNISON, THE HAMILTON SPECTATOR

The Canadian Pacific Holiday Train rolled into town Tuesday night, with a large crowd to welcome it despite the rain. The specially decorated freight train stopped at Gage Park on Lawrence Road as part of its journey across the country to build awareness and donations for local food banks. The CP Holiday Train is about 1,000 feet in length with 14 decorated rail cars, including one that has been turned into a travelling stage for performers.
